One-Year Financial Hardship
Extension from Foreclosure

2022

(2020 and prior years' delinquent taxes to be withheld from foreclosure in February 2023)

Hardship Extensions are designed to delay foreclosure deadlines by one year for owners who are actively working to catch up their delinquent property taxes. Hardship Extensions are aimed at homeowners but may be granted occasionally for small, family businesses or commercial property that is the primary source of the owner's income. The person requesting an extension must:

1. Hold title to the property or represent the estate if the owner is deceased.
2. Complete the attached Application.
3. Provide proof of income.
4. Provide information to us about assets you may have OTHER THAN:
 - a. Assets in retirement programs recognized as tax exempt by IRS (e.g. IRA, 401k, 457, SEP)
 - b. Personal, occupied residence
 - c. Vehicle, tools, or other equipment needed for work
5. Present a plan for payment. Plans may include one or more of the following:
 - a. Automatic deduction plan with the Treasurer
 - b. Assistance from a local help agency
 - c. Recent history of making regular payments
 - d. Sale or refinancing of the property

The Treasurer will assist delinquent taxpayers to develop a payment plan as part of the application process.

The law requires the Treasurer to review your income and allows the Treasurer to grant hardships to property owners whose household income is at or below the federal poverty income standards as defined and determined annually by the United States Office of Management and Budget.

However, the Grand Traverse County Treasurer will consider extenuating circumstances that may create financial hardship even if your income is higher than the federal standards. We are willing to discuss your individual situation with you as part of the application process.

Granting of financial hardship status shall be for only current year(s) pending foreclosure; it extends only the time to pay the amount due; additional expenses, interest, and penalties continue to accrue.
